CONTEMPT CASES UP

Tennessee Sheriff and Deputies Granted Request For Rehearing.

ORIGINATED FROM LYNCHING

Six Men Convicted by the United States Supreme Court—Great Interest Taken in Cases—Thronged Court Room.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 1.—In the cases of former Sheriff Shipp and his deputy, Jeremiah Gibson, and of Luther Williams, Nick Nolan, Henry Doughter and William Mayes, all of Chattanooga, Tenn., charged with contempt of the Supreme Court of the United States in connection with the lynching in 1905 of a negro named Ed Johnson, the court today postponed the passage of sentence to permit the prisoners to file petitions for a rehearing. The cases, therefore, go over until next term, the prisoners remaining out on bond.

The corridor outside the courtroom was densely crowded with persons wishing to get a view of the six principals. Only a few of them, however, were able to get inside of the space was almost entirely taken up by attorneys on Congressmen, including the delegation from Tennessee. In the throng outside was a negro who was loud in his charges of discrimination regarding admissions. It was observed that but two negroes, and they practicing attorneys, were in the court. Shortly before noon United States Marshal Dunlap, of the East Tennessee District, brought the prisoners to the court and they were assigned seats in the rear of the room. When the judges had taken their accustomed places, Chief Justice Fuller beckoned to the defendants to come forward. Marshall Wright, of the court, announced that in obedience to the writ of attachment, he produced the bodies of the accused men.

Solicitor General Bowers, representing the Department of Justice, moved for sentence, but Messrs. Chamberlain, Clift and Shepherd, of counsel for the men, called attention to the fact that they had seen the opinion of the court and they asked and asked leave to file a petition for a rehearing. The request was opposed by the Solicitor General, but Chief Justice Fuller announced that the court would take the request under advisement. Thereupon the Justices withdrew for a conference at the end of which Chief Justice Fuller announced that it had been decided to grant the request, 30 days being allowed in which to file the petition. The defendants in the meantime were remanded to Tennessee for a renewal of their bonds. The case in consequence now goes over until the next term of the court.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Bolt From Apparently Clear Sky Struck Negro.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Anderson, S. C., June 1.—A bolt of lightning that came from an apparently cloudless sky late tonight killed Jim Byrd, a negro plow hand on the plantation of J. A. Clinkscales, south of Anderson, and also the fine mule he was working. Sam Clinkscales, the young son of J. A. Clinkscales, who was plowing 200 yards away, was knocked down and badly stunned and is in bed from his injuries. His mule was also knocked down by the bolt.

AWAITS MISSING BOOKS IN JAIL

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 1.—George Baglin, vice president of the United Copper Company was taken to the Tombs today and must remain there, on an order of Judge Lacombe, of the United States District court until the missing books of the company which contain the evidence upon which the Federal district attorney seeks to convict Augustus Heinze are produced. A similar punishment also hangs over Sanford Robinson, a prominent director of the company, whose case will be further considered by Judge Lacombe tomorrow morning.

Both men are alleged to have permitted the splitting away of the books while under subpoena. Baglin testified before the grand jury that he had overheard Robinson and one of the Heinze brothers conspiring to remove the books and had interposed no objection.

RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS.

Seventeenth Annual Convention Assembled at Atlanta Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Atlanta, Ga., June 1.—With several hundred delegates from every State in the Union present, the 17th annual convention of the Railway Mail Association opened here today. Chief interest in the opening session centered in the address of Second Assistant Postmaster General Stewart, under whom the 15,000 railway mail clerks in the United States work. The announcement by Mr. Stewart that he had recommended a system of pensions for postal clerks who had grown old in the service, and further that clerks be paid their actual expenses while on duty away from their terminals was received with wild enthusiasm.

Captain J. E. White, former general superintendent of the railway mail service, and now the oldest member of the association, made a brief address, after which he was presented with a handsome gold headed cane.

President J. T. Canfield, of Syracuse, N. Y., in his annual address, delivered this afternoon, made recommendations for actual expenses for mail clerks beyond their terminals, higher classification for transfer clerks; the elimination of deferred promotions.

Following the reports of the other officers and the appointment of the usual committee the convention adjourned until tomorrow.

PHILADELPHIA STRIKE

Conditions Are Unchanged—Strikers Will Be Taken Back.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Philadelphia, June 1.—The first ordinary business day since the beginning of the street car men's strike here last Saturday morning closed with conditions practically unchanged. The traction company notified its men that those who had been discharged for striking on Saturday would be taken back if they reported for work at once. Men who had been discharged for trying offenses in the past were also welcomed back. By the aid of the recruits hired in this and other cities the company was enabled to run 700 of its 3,300 cars until tonight when no further attempt was made to continue the traffic until tomorrow morning.

WOMAN ROBBED OF $20,000.

Mrs. Shea Intended to Invest It in Seattle Property—No Clue.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Seattle, Wash., June 1.—Mrs. Geo. S. Shea, of Duth, Minn., reported to the police last night that she had been robbed of $20,000 in currency. Mrs. Shea intended to invest the money in property here.

Her husband shipped the money to her by the Great Northern Express Company which delivered the package to her on Thursday. Yesterday Mrs. Shea on leaving her sister's residence hid the $20,000 between the sheets of a bed. On returning home at night she found burglars had ransacked the house and stolen the treasure.

SHOOTING AT UNION, S. C.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Union, S. C., June 1.—Charles Miller, an operative in the Union Mills here, was shot and probably fatally injured today by Munroe Ward, a former policeman, the cause of the shooting being unknown. Miller is too ill to talk. Ward surrendered immediately after the shooting.

As a result of a bitter quarrel yesterday at Achord, Ga., between Thomas Poole, a well known Dodge county planter, and his neighbor, W. A. Miller, the former was instantly killed. Poole, it is said, had been paying attentions to a daughter of Miller and had been requested to stay away from the Miller home.

The degree of LL. D. was yesterday conferred by Erskine College, of Due West, S. C., upon J. C. Hemphill, editor of the Charleston News and Courier and Chief Justice Ira B. Jones, of the Supreme Court of this State.

TARIFF PROGRESS

STIFF DUTY IS PROPOSED

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 1.—After, in effect, receiving information from Chairman Aldrich that beginning with tomorrow night, it would be expected to hold night sessions for the consideration of the tariff bill, the Senate today began consideration of the cotton cloth schedule. This portion of the bill had been passed over upon the first reading with the understanding that many amendments to it would be offered and that much time would be necessary for its discussion. The first day did not fall short of a justification of this supposition.

There were not many speeches but those that were made were of considerable length. Senators Smoot and Lodge, both of them majority members of the committee on finance, were the principal orators of the day and both spoke in support of the committee provisions. The Utah Senator entered upon a technical presentation of the entire subject, reaching the conclusion that the Senate bill does not, in reality, increase the duties contemplated by the Dingley law. He undertook, however, to show that by the various rulings of the customs authorities, these duties had been rescued to the extent of an average of 20 per cent. It was the purpose of the committee to carry into effect the existing law, he declared, and the committee has been informed by neither the manufacturers nor the importers.

Senator Lodge gave special attention to the cotton schedule, but incidentally spoke of the general policy of the Republican party with reference to the subject of tariff revision. He contended that there had been no intention of revising the tariff downward but that the purpose of the party had been merely to so revise the tariff as to protect American manufacturers against cheap foreign labor. He declared that New England factories were returning only small dividends to their owners and traced the general increase in the prices of commodities to the enlarged volume of gold in the country, rather than to the advantages accruing from the protective system. He explained at length the process of mercantilism in order to show that the protective rate allowed for this process was not excessive.

Early in the day Senator Dooliver took exception to a remark by Senator Aldrich. The Iowa Senator had offered an amendment to the cotton schedule providing for ad valorem rather than specific duties, whereupon Mr. Aldrich made incidental reference to Senators "who come here with importers' briefs."

Mr. Dooliver made sharp reply but when Mr. Aldrich explained that he had not meant any reflection, calm was restored and business proceeded with serenity.

Later the Senator from Iowa said reflections upon his course had come from behind the doors of the finance committee. This was said in response to a defense by Senator Root of the board of general appraisers, to which reference had been made by Mr. Dooliver.

At 5:05 P. M. the Senate adjourned until 10:30 A. M. tomorrow.

The House was in session only 13 minutes adjourning until Monday without transacting any business. Senator Culberson made objection to the Aldrich resolution for night sessions, forcing it over until tomorrow. The majority will support Aldrich. Senator Bailey characterized the remarks of the chairman as a threat but Mr. Aldrich disclaimed such, saying the business interests demanded that the bill be disposed of in some way as soon as possible.

ROCKY POINT SHIPPERS.

Two Cars of Irish Potatoes and Three Cars of Beans.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)
Rocky Point, N. C., June 1.—Three solid cars of beans and two cars of Irish potatoes, composed the shipments from this place today to A. S. Downs & Co., in New York. This is the heaviest shipment of early Spring vegetables from this place. In the cars were 4,000 baskets of beans and 700 barrels of potatoes. The prices are $1.25 to $2.00 per basket for beans and $3.50 to $4.00 a barrel for potatoes. The first cucumbers of the season went forward also from this place today.

SESSIONS OF T. P. A.

DEMANDS FOR CERTAIN LAWS

Association is Urged to Defeat Repeal of Duty on Tobacco—Railroad Report a Feature—Bitter Contest for Office.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., June 1.—The adoption by the rising vote of the entire convention of a resolution calling on Congress to promote the commercial interests of the country by taking immediate action on the tariff question; demands made in official reports for the enactment of laws making railroads liable for the loss of commercial travelers' samples as for baggage, and the presentation of a resolution to discourage "tipping" hotel waiters, were the features of the second session of the Travelers' Protective Association at the auditorium this morning.

The reading of the reports of the legislative and National railroad committees took up the entire morning and it was after the presentation of the former by Chairman S. Harwood, of Richmond, Va., that J. P. Wollstein, of Maryland, offered the resolution relative to prompt Congressional action on the tariff bill.

Mr. Harwood's report dealt with the parcels post bill, the net excess baggage bill, the good roads bill, the steel car bill, and the tariff bill.

Chairman E. W. Crandall, of Missouri, read the report of the review of railroad conditions affecting traveling men and it urged a uniform classification law. Rate laws were discussed at length with the general conclusion that rate legislation was very much complicated. The present system of pulling mileage at the ticket windows instead of on the train in vogue on some of the Southern roads, was sharply criticised. The railroad report was received with loud applause.

During the progress of the session telegrams were received from various cities urging the Association to employ fair methods to defeat the repeal of the duty on leaf tobacco.

The afternoon session was taken up by the reading of the reports of the National press, hotel, and roads and legal committees. A touch of sentiment was lent to the session by the adoption of a resolution providing for the forwarding of a congratulatory message to Miss Daisy Wilson, of Houston, Texas, daughter of National Chaplain Dr. Homer T. Wilson, on the occasion of her marriage tonight to Dr. Frank C. Beall, a prominent surgeon of Fort Worth, Texas.

A card party for the ladies attending the convention at the Manor this morning and a ball at the Battery Park tonight were among the social events scheduled for the entertainment of the visitors.

The air of the convention is rife with political strategy and "trades" and "swaps" are the order of the day in the fight for the office of secretary and treasurer. A caucus of the Missouri delegation tonight resulted in the announcement of the candidacy of P. J. O'Meara, of Indianapolis, for president. This announcement is regarded as a move to split up the vote of the Indiana delegation which is solidly supporting Schuyler T. Logan, of Lafayette, Ind., for secretary and treasurer, against H. T. LaBeaume, of St. Louis. LeBeaume's advantage, however, is the claim all knowledge of the "combine" and assert that their man will easily defeat the Indiana candidate for the secretaryship. In some quarters O'Meara's candidacy for the presidency is warmly advocated and there are some delegates who declare that he can defeat Henry O. Gray, of Louisville, Ky., the present incumbent of the presidential chair. The election of officers and the selection of next year's convention city is scheduled for tomorrow.

DECISION AS TO WHARVES.

Supreme Court Holds Owners May Exclude Others From Use.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Washington, June 1.—That a steamship company may exclude others from the use of wharves when owned exclusively by it as in effect decided in the Supreme Court of the United States today in the case of the Weems Steamboat Company, of Baltimore, vs. The People's Steamboat Company.

The controversy arose over the use of 13 wharves of the Rappahannock river in Virginia, which are owned by the Weems Company. The People's Company is the owner of a rival line of boats on the same stream and the Weems Company sought to enjoin it from using its wharves. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals held, however, that a wharf is not private property in the same sense that the public may be excluded from it, and refused to grant the injunction. The Supreme Court reversed that ruling and decided for the Weems Company. Justice Peckham announced the opinion of the court.

JUDGE CONNOR TAKES OATH

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—In the presence of Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the State Supreme Court; ex-Chief Justice James E. Shepherd, ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock and many prominent attorneys from all parts of the district together with a company of citizens generally that packed the court room to the doors, Judge Henry Groves Connor, took the oath of office as judge of the United States district and Circuit courts, presenting his commission from President Taft before subscribing to the oaths as administered by United States Commissioner John Nichols.

As soon as the signatures and seals had been affixed Marshal Claudius Dockery announced: "His Honor, Judge of the United States Circuit and District Courts" and Judge Connor ascended the bench and took up the routine of Court proceedings.

In the course of his charge to the grand jury Judge Connor took occasion to say that there was no more dangerous condition that could develop in the State than antagonism between the State and the Federal authorities or lack of respect for the Federal Court and that it is the bounden duty of citizens to respect and obey both. Properly administered, there is, he declared, not the slightest danger of conflict between the State and the Federal jurisdictions. In his general charge he treated at length the duties of the grand jury as the eyes and the right arm of the court and treated briefly some of the most important statute violations which would most probably come up for their investigation.

There are quite a number of very important cases to come up for trial at this term but they will not get through the grand jury and to the court for trial for a day or two yet in all probability.

The case of J. W. Coletrane, ex-posed clerk on the Southern from Greensboro to Goldsboro, charged with rifling the mails of many valuable packages, was ordered continued by Judge Connor until Wednesday of next week.

The first case that went to trial before a jury was Johnathan Sheffield, of Moore county, for illicit distilling. H. F. Seawell, who lost out in the Federal judgeship contest after he was appointed by President Roosevelt, was counsel for the defendant, being the first lawyer to appear before the new judge in actual defense of a client. A verdict of guilty was returned after court took a recess for the day.

The North Carolina Methodist Conference Male Quartette which has gained an inter-State reputation is by special invitation to sing for the International Epworth League convention at Seattle in July, the convention meeting there in connection with the great exposition in progress there. The quartette is composed of Rev. C. E. Vase, first tenor; Rev. J. H. Frizelle, second tenor; Rev. A. J. Parker first bass, and R. M. Phillips second bass. From now until the members of the quartette start for their western trip they will sing at a number of points in the eastern section of the State. They were at Goldsboro last night.

Plans are being perfected for the erection of a splendid 12-story office building here by the Citizens' National Bank. The building will take the place of the present four-story building corner Fayetteville and Martin streets. Joseph G. Brown is president and Colonel A. B. Andrews vice president.

The "North Carolina Progressive Association of Workers for the Blind" has just been organized here with Norman Fisher, of Parkton, president; Miss T. C. Demering, Greensboro, vice president; Bernard Williamson, Wilmington, secretary. The special purpose of the organization is studying the needs and possible employment of the blind people of the State under some system yet to be evolved. They appeal for the co-operation of their seeing friends.

The Secretary of State announces that he is now ready to receive applications from owners of automobiles and other motor vehicles in the State for registration under the general act of the recent General Assembly requiring that all such vehicles used on the public highways shall bear a license tax of $5 for the first year's and $1 annually thereafter. This law applies to every county in the State except New Hanover which was allowed a special act to apply in that county.

At Washington yesterday the test case of the Southern Railway against the Inter-State Commerce Commission involving the right of the commission to fix the charge for the reconsignment of hay shipped through East St. Louis, was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States against the Commission.

A tax of 2 per cent. on all incomes of individuals or corporations over $5,000 per year is provided in Senator Cummins' amendment to the tariff bill presented to the Senate yesterday.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 1.—Fayetteville defeated Wilmington in a fast and snappy game this afternoon, score 4 to 2. The pitching of both Muir and Wysong was magnificent, each allowing but three hits. Two bunched hits and an error gave the game to the Highlanders in the eighth inning.

Both Smith and Brodie were out of the game for Wilmington today on account of sickness, Sharp and Fox being moved up a base and Levy taking first. Arthur McRae, the clever shortstop of Davidson College, and a favorite with local fans, covered short for the Highlanders in fine style.

In the first inning Sharp was out short to first, Streaser was safe on Dobson's error, but Levy flew out to short and Kite to left. Fayetteville was out in order, Lohr on fly to right, Dobson, pitcher to first and Clemmons on a fan.

Wilmington scored in the second, Jays having walked and gone to third on Muir's fumble of Wolf's bunt, scoring on Simmons' sacrifice to short, Wolf going to third, but Fox flew out to second and Wysong beat the ozone. For Fayetteville Hart was safe on Wysong's error and stole second; Waters was out, pitcher to first, Hart going to third. McRae hit to pitcher and was safe at first, Hart scoring on Wolf's error; Fulmer fanned and MacRae was out on his way to second.

Wilmington put in another across the plate in the third after Sharp had flied out to first. Streaser hit safely to first, stole second, went to third and scored on Levy's hit to left; Kite drew a pass, Levy stole second but was caught with designs on third; Jays was out, pitcher to first. Fayetteville was out, one, two, three. Duhrin to short; Muir on a fan and Lohr to right.

In the fourth Wolf and Simmons were out fourth and pitcher to first; Fox hit safely through pitcher and stole second, Wysong fanned. Fayetteville clinched the game in her half when Dobson, first up, drew a pass and stole second; Clemmons hit to pitcher and was safe, while Dobson scored on error of first; Hart sacrificed; Waters fouled out to catcher; MacRae out second to first.

Sharp, first up in the fifth, walked; Streaser forced hi mat second and Streaser himself was out going to second. Levy flew out to right. For Fayetteville Fulmer and Duhrin flew out to second and Muir fanned.

The sixth was very brief; Kite out, short to first; Jays walked but out, trying second; Wolf scored. For Fayetteville Lohr and Dobson out, third to first, Clemmons, short to first.

Wilmington got a near score in the seventh after Simmons was out, second to first; Fox hit to left; Wysong sacrificed; Sharp drew a pass but Streaser forced Fox at third. For Fayetteville Hart fanned; Waters singled to right but was forced at second by MacRae; Fulmer was out, pitcher to first.

In the eighth, Levy, Kite and Jays were out to third, short to first and second to first. Duhrin, for Fayetteville, flew out to centre; Muir singled to centre; Lohr hit safely to third; Dobson bunted down third-base line, forcing Lohr at second; Clemmons hit to second and after Dobson had stolen second, he and Muir scored. Hart flew out to left.

Wilmington could do nothing in the ninth, Wolf having flied out to centre while Simmons was out to first; Howard batting for Wysong walked, but Sharp ended the agony by flying out to centre.

CHRISTIAN REID.

There occurred at Belmont, Gaston county, N. C., on Monday, a notable incident that recalls the fact that North Carolina has an author that made both herself and the State famous. This incident occurred at the Catholic college, (St. Mary's), at Belmont, and the occasion was the award of the "Laetare Medal." This honor is annually conferred upon some distinguished member of the Catholic Church by the faculties and trustees of the Notre Dame University, Indiana, and the recipient of the honor this year was Mrs. Frances Fisher Tiernan, of Salisbury, N. C. Right Rev. Leo Haid, Bishop of North Carolina, officiated, and the university was represented by the Rev. Dr. Burns, of Washington, D. C. There was a large attendance on the occasion, many of Mrs. Tiernan's friends from Salisbury and other places in the State being among those present.

Mrs. Tiernan distinguished herself as a novelist and wrote under the name of Christian Reid, by which she is widely known in literary circles. She is properly regarded as the most distinguished author of fiction that North Carolina has produced and the award of the medal is the highest honor bestowed by the Catholic Church of the United States for the promotion of literary effort and in recognition of achievement in letters.

Many of our older people read Christian Reid's works and know about her, but many of the younger people are not fully aware of the wide popularity of this distinguished North Carolinian, who is still living at Salisbury. Speaking of the award of the "Laetare Medal" at St. Mary's the Charlotte Observer speaks of the author as follows:

"The author thus honored is a daughter of the gallant gentleman who, after launching the Western North Carolina Railroad and otherwise rendering the State great service in peace days, virtually won First Manassas when he fell charging at the head of the Sixth North Carolina Regiment and gave his name to Fort Fisher. Like him, she has done the State no ordinary service, for it was her "Land of the Sky" (1876) which made mountain North Carolina famous and in honoring Confederate memories scarcely any one's efforts have availed more. From "Valerie Aylmer" (1870) on through such works as "Morton House," "The Man of the Family," "Hearts of Steel," "The Picture of Las Cruces," "Princess Nadine" (1907), she has pictured for her readers chiefly the Old South, historic Europe, Mexico and Santo Domingo.

"Characterizing all these works is a true literary flavor and high moral tone, yet several have been among the best sellers of their publication year. That they possess an enduring value no one acquainted with them will dispute. Partly owing to a life of comparative seclusion, this author is much too little known in North Carolina. There was a time when our people were hardly blameable for indifference toward their writers, but now that the necessary material foundation is laid they will do themselves wrong and discredit it all but a few act upon the principle that man should live by bread alone."

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

Many handsome or cozy homes have recently been built in Wilmington, and still the good work goes on. Of course many of these new residences have been erected by people of means, but a large number have been built through the several building and loan associations of our city. There are several building and loan associations here and they have been managed with the completest success. They are all staunch institutions and while they are largely patronized, we believe that greater publicity would increase their business.

The Charlotte associations advertise extensively, and as a result the associations of that city have made a record that attracts attention outside the State. Their fame is spreading, and concerning their record and the benefit of such institutions in city building, the Columbia State says:

"No institutions are more beneficial to a progressive and growing city than well conducted building and loan associations. A striking example of what these associations do for a city is seen in the city of Charlotte, N. C. Charlotte today has in force four associations, 42,000 shares of the par value of $4,200,000, which means that she has subscribed $105 per capita of her 40,000 inhabitants. The reports from the associations in that city show that there is paid in on each share $41.50. In other words, that there is today in that city paid in and loaned out by building and loan associations the princely sum of $1,650,000.

because the non-borrowing or investing class have realized that the investments of their savings in building and loan associations bring them greater returns than any other moneyed institutions in the land, with the further assurance that their investments are absolutely safe.

"The management of building and loan associations in the city of Columbia has always been conservatively conducted. The rate of interest charged by these associations varies from 6 to 8 per cent, according to the plans adopted. There is no better way for a citizen to secure a home than to buy a lot, subscribe for stock in a building and loan association and borrow a sufficient amount to build his house. Building and loan dues, including interest and taxes, are about the same, or only a little more than, paying rent. The home builder pays off his debt in monthly installments. Many subscribers do not borrow as a means of forcing themselves to save a certain amount monthly at a fair rate of interest upon absolutely safe security."

A stroll around Wilmington shows some sections of the city that are badly in need of improved homes, or offer opportunity to those who have the capital to erect more modern homes for a large portion of our population. A nice cottage will rent quicker and better than the old ones, and if citizens who have money to invest will look into the needs of the various sections of the city, they will see many opportunities for profitable investments in lots and new cottages or in the improvement of neglected small homes.

NORTH CAROLINA'S MOST POPULOUS CITY.

Charlotte is an ambitious city and the people there have been itching for the Queen City to be ranked as North Carolina's biggest city. The Charlotte papers have long since refused to regard Greensboro as in the class to dispute population with Charlotte, but they have watched Wilmington with a keen eye, and have for several years been prepared to gloat over the time when Charlotte would overtop Wilmington. The last United States census, 1900, made Wilmington's population larger than that of Charlotte, but in these nine years past Charlotte has been doing some growing. So has Wilmington, and while we think Wilmington still has Charlotte's shadow, we are glad to see this rivalry, for it would do all North Carolina cities good to get up a race involving population, industries and civic improvements.

"A new city directory for Wilmington has been published and as to the interesting feature of that, as of all directories, The Star says: 'The population of the city is given at 35,000 which is considered low enough, and it is believed that Wilmington is still the largest city in the State, notwithstanding the big claims made by the "City of 42,000" and Charlotte, which claims still more people.' If 35,000 is the best directory-population Wilmington can claim, we are afraid it will have to give up hopes of being known as the largest city in the State. That honor came to Charlotte several years ago. The Wilmington directory, however, shows a gratifying increase in population. That city has been coming forward at a lively rate in the past few years."

The information sent to Washington by the German Government to correct certain impressions about so-called German pauper labor, used in arguments for our protective tariff, was an indiscretion, but the fact that it made Senator Aldrich get hot in the collar is evidence that the information was calculated to seriously damage Republican arguments.

The envious and fractious Charleston News and Courier says: "Now, if Fremont had taken the battleship to Savannah or Wilmington, he would really have deserved some sort of distinction out of the ordinary." Of course, these few lines are sent forth to create the impression that a real ship might crawl into Charleston.

Republicans now deny that their National platform promised to revise the tariff downward. That part of the platform was purposely framed so that it could be interpreted one way during the campaign and the other way after the election.

The Charleston News and Courier blurts out: "He is a master printer who can imprint a kiss on the dainty cheek of a South Carolina strawberry-and-cream-fed maiden." We've got those artists all over North Carolina. Bring on your maidens.

Most of the snap shots of President Taft show him smiling, says the Washington Post. When people from this prohibition country go to Washington wouldn't it be nice to join the President in a smile?

A Georgia paper says "The Georgia peach is now going to New York." The North Carolina peach will soon be on her way to Wrightsville Beach.

A Georgia prophet has been sentenced to work the roads. Evidently the intention is to make a profit out of him.

Don't put off anything of importance till tomorrow for some hustler may do it today.

"There is no such thing as red hair, it's only an illusion," declares a German chemist. There is a peculiar kind of illusion of that class that is awfully pretty, and there is no delusion about this.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—A pretty young woman embarrassed Mr. Taft the other day in North Carolina. All she said was "Oh, I love you, Mr. Taft!" Embarrassed! We hear that every day down South, and know the provoking creatures never mean it. When they do, they don't say it.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

—A Republican Senator in asking relief for the tobacco growers of Kentucky, says there is no competition in buying their product—that one concern fixes the price. We have heard the same complaint from the tobacco growers of Florida, and yet protection is demanded in their interest. Now, what can a producer get out of the tariff if he has to sell his product to one customer or keep it? The tariff on tobacco fattens somebody. It fattens the tobacco trust. How can it benefit the producer when his customer has the only voice in fixing the price?—Florida Times-Union. "This is gospel truth. The higher the tariff on the natural product, the easier for the trust to make its monopoly complete and soon control the price to be paid to the farmer for the raw material and the price to be charged the consumer for the manufactured article.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

—Those Republicans guarded well the secret meeting they held in Greensboro last Friday, but they won't be able to keep the secret long. The object of the conference and what was done will be sure to leak out in time. The purpose may have been momentous, but the results will hardly amount to a great deal. Most likely the meeting was for the purpose of bringing about greater harmony in the matter of recommending men for appointment to office rather than to formulate plans for opposing the President or for trying to induce him to change the course he has mapped out for his future action. From a Republican party standpoint the former would be the more sensible action. The discord, bickering and backbiting among the leading members of that party in North Carolina have had much to do with influencing the President toward the course so distasteful to them. They have lost immensely by it and will continue to lose so long as they carry on this factional strife.—Charlotte Observer.

—Three of the leading newspaper men of the country to whom the post om Ambassador to China has been offered by President Taft, have, one after the other, declined the honor. This leads the Charleston News and Courier to remark that a Southern man ought to be sent to the China mission, because the principal exports from this country to China consist of cotton goods from the South, and it suggests either Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, or Capt. E. A. Smyth, of Pelzer, both leading cotton manufacturers, for the post. The Anderson Mail calls this suggestion "a mighty good one," and The Greenville News endorsing it says: "While we doubt if either Captain Smyth or Mr. Tompkins could be induced to accept such a post, it is nevertheless true that the President could not improve upon such a selection in this whole country." It would be a fine thing for the South were either of these men sent to China to look after its interests, but the trouble is, neither would go if appointed, and it is well, because, useful as either might be there, he is more useful in the field he now occupies.—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—"What does your husband like for his breakfast?" "Anything I haven't got in the house."—Cleveland Leader.

—"My ancestors came over in the Mayflower," said the haughty lady. "Oh, yes," rejoined Mrs. Cumrox, with interest. "Mine didn't. None of my family ever cared for those big excursions."—Washington Star.

—"I don't know how to refuse him. Then let him down easy." "How can I?" "Accept him, start a flirtation with another fellow and when your fiancé gets mad break off the engagement."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Says Mr. Jawback-Gee, but you women think it's awful to be an old maid, don't you. Answers Mrs. J., right off the reel—Yes. It would appear so, to look at the freaks we marry to escape it!—Cleveland Leader.

—"Constitution—What do you suppose Graphier is worth?" Senator Lotsum—"I don't know what he's worth now. I bought him once when he was just starting out for $75 and a railway pass."—Chicago Tribune.

—"We have met to consider the protests of the public," said the president to the directors of the corporation. "Let's consider them impertinent and in bad taste," responded one of the directors. This being the consensus of opinion, adjournment was reached in time for the ball game.—Philadelphia Ledger.

—"Investing His Profits—"What are you going to do with the money you get for your crops this year?" "I guess I'll get one of these here centurions I read about in a book to run the new carriage I bought last year." "Why, a centurian is an imaginary creature." "Wal, this is an imaginary carriage."—Washington Star.

A FAMOUS PLAYHOUSE

Old Drury Lane Has Outlived Many Vicissitudes.

A PHENIX AMONG THEATERS.

London's Home of Pantomime Has Been the Scene of Many Conflagrations—Attacks Upon Royalty Within Its Walls—The "Rejected Addresses."

On the night of Feb. 24, 1800, as the house of commons was engaged upon a rather important debate, sundry of the members observed through the windows a faint red glow which eventually became so alarming in its intensity as to interfere with the orderly course of the discussion. It was not long before the news ran round the benches that Drury Lane theater was alight, and so great was the general concern at what was considered almost a national disaster that a motion was made to adjourn the sitting. Sheridan, however, as Moore tells us in his life of the great orator, immediately expressed the hope—with an air of detachment that did him the greatest credit, considering his position as principal shareholder in the theater—that "whatever might be the extent of the present calamity it would not interfere with the public business of the country." That his courage was not daunted by so serious a personal disaster was proved by the fact that he reopened a week later at the Lyceum.

The destruction of "The Lane"—the third building since its foundation in 1683—was one of seven familiar disasters to London theaters in twenty years; but, whatever else happened, Drury Lane must be rebuilt. Nor was the decision on the part of the proprietors unbusinesslike in the least degree, for Horace Walpole, under the date of 1751, tells us how on the day appointed for the nationalization bill "the house of commons adjourned to attend at Drury Lane, where 'Othello' was acted by a Mr. Debanal and his family."

Drury Lane has passed through many vicissitudes in the course of its existence. The first building was very unfavorably described by Pepys, who writes of the discomfort caused by rain that found its way through the roof and drenched the occupants of the pit and also the bad acoustic qualities of the place. Fire put an end to these inconveniences in 1672. The second theater, which was designed by Wren and opened in 1674, had a much longer life, but was on two occasions the scene of attempts upon the royal family. In 1716 Freeman tried to shoot the Prince of Wales, who afterward became King George II., and in 1800 George III. was the victim of a similar unsuccessful attack at the hands of a lunatic. It was this same building which, as Walpole relates in one of his letters, was the scene of a lively disturbance in 1744, when an attempt was made to introduce pantomime for the first time. So great has been the change of popular sentiment on this point since that far off date that today winter in London without pantomime at Drury Lane is almost incredible.

The third building, which was opened in 1794, came to an untimely end, as we have seen, in 1809, and the inauguration of its successor three years later was marked by an event of considerable literary importance. The managers of the theater, being desirous of giving their new venture a good sendoff, invited the public to submit to competition suitable prologues, the prize poem to have the honor of being publicly recited from the stage upon the day of opening. A host of writers, including many of the best known names in contemporary literature, responded to the invitation, and this fact fortunately suggested to two brothers, James and Horace Smith, who were beginning to acquire a reputation in the world of letters, the notion of publishing anonymously a collection of prologues parodying the styles of various living writers of repute. As it was necessary that the little volume should be issued in time for the opening of the theater, the authors were compelled to complete their task in six weeks, but it is doubtful whether the quality of the work suffered much on this account. Indeed, in the preface to the eighteenth edition, published in 1833, it is suggested that the parodies gained rather than lost in effectiveness by being struck off, as it were, at a white heat.

The success of "The Rejected Addresses" was immediate and lasting. The two brothers found that they had leaped into fame at a bound, and the famous authors whom they had so successfully held up to kindly ridicule expressed their astonishment at the accuracy with which their peculiarities of style and expression had been reproduced. It was a notable achievement. Byron, whose prologue won the prize and was delivered in due course on the Drury Lane stage, writing to Murray, expressed his appreciation of the little volume that had made such a stir in the world and in a second letter told him that he liked it "better and better." Jeffrey in 1843 wrote that he took "The Rejected Addresses" to be the very best imitations (and often of difficult originals) that ever were made. But perhaps the comment which pleased the authors the most was that of a Lincolnshire clergyman (quoted in the preface of 1833) to the effect that he did not see why they should have been rejected. Indeed, he thought some of them very good. The reverend gentleman displayed "a plentiful lack" of humor in this pronouncement, but there will be few even today to quarrel with his judgment.—London Globe.

ANOTHER ROBBERY

Homes of Mr. Jacob G. Seitter Burglarized—Money Stolen.

While members of the family were on the truck farm yesterday morning, the home of Mr. Jacob G. Seitter, who resides at Nolan, on the suburban line, was burglarized and the contents of three pocket books were stolen. The pocket books contained in the aggregate about $7.

The robbery was not discovered until about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Seitter's daughter, to whom one of the stolen pocket books belonged, had occasion to go to her trunk for some change and found that some one had been there. It was recalled then that about 9 o'clock a negro was seen near the house and it is supposed that he committed the deed.

Entrance was effected through a window, the blinds of which were broken. Mr. Seitter's pocket book was in a different room from the one in which the burglar operated, hence his money was not found.

The matter was reported to the Recorder's office yesterday afternoon and an effort is being made to capture the guilty party.

JURY TRIAL YESTERDAY

One of the most novel and interesting trials ever heard in New Hanover magisterial circles was that of Frank Herbst against W. S. and H. F. Newkirk, involving an account and counter-claim, before Justice Bornemann yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Constable Savage was busy all the morning summoning a jury and the following were finally empaneled: J. O. Carr, J. J. Blair, C. C. Parker, J. G. Barentine, J. C. Loder and M. D. Bright. The plaintiff was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and Messrs. John D. Bellamy & Son appeared for the defendants, lengthy arguments being made on either side, after which the "judge" charged the jury with becoming dignified and the six men under lock and key and in charge of Constable Savage after half an hour's deliberation awarded the plaintiff a verdict for $33.05 offset by a counter-claim of $25 on account of failure of the plaintiff to give defendants 30 days notice before requiring them to vacate building.

Board of Health to Meet.

The City Board of Health, composed of Mayor Walter MacRae, Drs. A. H. Harris and T. S. DAMAGE SUIT BEING TRIED

In the Superior Court yesterday afternoon the trial of the case of L. S. Mixon against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, a suit for damages in the sum of $10,000 for personal injuries, was begun and will consume the time of the court today and probably tomorrow. The plaintiff was the first witness examined and at the conclusion of his testimony, court took a recess until this morning.

The selection of a jury was begun upon the opening of the afternoon session. It required considerable time to get a jury acceptable to both sides. Finally the following were accepted to sit upon the case: P. W. Benton, Jerre Hand, W. S. Cooper, J. M. Wolf, H. H. Hall, Ed George, J. E. Hall, J. C. Bordeaux, T. J. McInerney, D. L. T. Capps, R. N. Causey, T. G. Landen.

The plaintiff was injured on the night of April 15th, 1907, while working as a switchman for the Coast Line on the local yards. His hand was caught on a hand-hold on the tender when he went to alight, causing him to fall, being knocked over the ends of the cross-ties and against the switch board with such force as to injure his spine. He alleges that the injury is permanent and that the accident could have been avoided had not one of the bolts in the hand-hold been projecting out about an inch.

Mr. Meares Harris, expert stenographer, is taking the testimony in the case. The attorneys are, for the plaintiff, Messrs. Geo. H. Howell, C. D. Weeks and Ricard & Emph, and for the defendant, Messrs. Davis & Davis and Jno. D. Bellamy & Son.

The morning session of court lasted for only one hour and a half, adjournment being taken at 11 o'clock. One case was tried at the morning session and several continued until the next term. Swift & Company against John W. Capps, in which the plaintiff was seeking to recover $90 alleged to be due on account, was tried, the jury returning a verdict in favor of the defendant. Rountree & Carr represented the plaintiff company and Woodus Kellum, Esq., appeared for the defendant.

In the case of Pembroke Jones against the Southern Express Company, counsel for the defendant made a motion to dismiss the action on account of the failure of the plaintiff to file complaint within the prescribed time. The motion was denied and the plaintiffs allowed 60 days to file complaint and the defendants were given 60 days thereafter to file answer.

The following cases were continued for the term: I. J. Sternberger against the National Cash Register Company; Jas. McLaurin against Thos. McLaurin, and the American School of Correspondence against Chas. McMillen.

DR. HALE EXPRESSES THANKS.

On Journey to Far West He Remembers His Wilmington Friends.

Hamlet, N. C., June 1, 1909.
Editor Star:—Will you kindly allow me, through the columns of your paper, to report progress on our trip to the far West? After a night's refreshing sleep at Hamlet, we are ready this morning to take a Pullman through to Memphis.

Also, I should like to write a word of appreciation of the many kindnesses and favors shown me by the good people of Wilmington, among whom, in the providence of God, my lot was cast for above five years. First, during this entire time The Morning Star shone daily into my home, with the compliments of its managers. It treated me fairly, and courteously and considerably, even when at times, it had to report adversely as to my course as a public man. I rejoice with the Star, under its new regime, in its outlook for improved civic conditions, and predict that, so soon as its old contracts expire, it will accept no more whiskey advertisements.

Then, I would make mention of the kind consideration of Dr. C. D. Bell, who, as my family physician, and the specialist, Dr. S. E. Koonce, would accept no money consideration for their valuable professional services. I acknowledge also, favors shown me by the Tidewater Power Co., by the banks and by many business men of the city.

I greatly appreciate the kind expression of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in the resolutions adopted at their recent meeting. I am indebted also, to the kind friends, who presented to me the well-filled purse upon my leaving; and to the many members of the other denominations of Christians, and citizens generally, both Jew and Gentile, who spoke kindly to me of the service I tried to render to the city, outside of my own church.

That God may continue to bless and prosper dear old Wilmington shall be my prayer.
FRED D. HALE.

Mr. Stanly Dies in Goldsboro.

A telegram was received here yesterday by Mr. W. E. Yopp announcing the death of Mr. J. W. Stanly, who has for a number of years been a traveling salesman, making frequent visits to Wilmington, where he is well known. He had a score of friends in this city, who will learn of his death with deep regret. Mr. Stanly's death occurred suddenly at his home yesterday morning at 7 o'clock and the funeral will be held tomorrow.

MR. HENRY MARTYN CURTIS.

Former Wilmington Citizen Passed Away in White Plains, N. Y.

The sad news has been received here of the sudden death of Mr. Henry Martyn Curtis at his home in White Plains, N. Y., on last Wednesday. He was formerly a resident of Wilmington, residing here several years. He went to Wilmington in the early fifties, and entered into co-partnership with Mr. James A. Willard, doing a large and successful business in naval stores, the firm being Willard & Curtis. Mr. Curtis was one of the first members of the Wilmington Light Infantry and became an officer in that organization. In about 1861 he removed to New York, opening an office on Wall street, where he was the first petroleum broker. He was very successful and made a handsome fortune, but later lost a large portion through the Standard Oil Company. He continued the business up to the time of his death which was caused by heart failure.

Mr. Curtis was a son of the late Col. Nathaniel Curtis, and was born at Hopkinton, N. H., 1831. He was a man of the strictest integrity and honor, and beloved by a large circle of friends. He was a devoted and active member of the Episcopal church. Surviving him are a widow and one son, Mr. Henry Skillman Curtis; a sister, Mrs. Moody B. Smith, of Metuchen, N. J., and one brother, the venerable Dr. Walter G. Curtis, of Southport. The funeral took place Saturday, 29th, from Grace Church, White Plains, N. Y., and the remains were tenderly laid to rest in the family lot in beautiful Greenwood cemetery.

At the Bijou.

The Bijou is offering an unusually attractive film as the feature of today's performance, "Resurrection," a free adaptation of Leo Tolstoy's powerful novel, is the title of the picture. The reading public is familiar with the novel by Count Leo Tolstoy. It has made a deep impression on account of its strong moral. The picture offered at the Bijou portrays all the stirring incidents of the story.

TAYLOR-STEVENS MARRIAGE

Wedding of Popular Southport Couple
Celebrated at High Noon Yesterday—Quiet Home Affair.
Bridal Tour North.

A marriage of much interest to many friends in Wilmington, Southport and elsewhere was solemnized at the home of the bride's father, E. B. Stevens, Esq., at Southport at high noon yesterday, when his attractive and accomplished daughter, Miss Jessie Margaret Stevens, became the bride of Charles Edward Taylor, Esq., Brunswick's popular Representative in the last Legislature and a prominent member of the Southport bar, Rev. J. A. Erwin, pastor of the Christian Church of this city, performing the impressive ceremony.

It was a quiet home affair, beautiful in its simplicity, being attended by only a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The Stevens home was artistically decorated for the happy occasion fraught with so much interest to the young couple, the color scheme being white and yellow. White carnations, roses and bamboo added to the floral effects. The bride was becomingly attired in a messaline gown and wore a bridal veil and carried a bouquet of Bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional frock coat. There were no attendants. The bride was given away by her father.

The bridal party and guests were entertained at a delightful luncheon immediately after the ceremony at which chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake were served. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left Southport on the 2 o'clock boat, arriving here in the afternoon. They took the 7 o'clock northbound train for Detroit, Mich., Niagara Falls and New York, on their bridal tour. They will return to Southport in ten days or two weeks and will reside there.

The beautiful array of bridal presents attest the popularity of the happy couple. Gifts were received from friends and relatives at home and abroad.

Among those who attended from Wilmington were: Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCaig, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mercer, Rev. J. A. Erwin and Mrs. Erwin, Mrs. Richard Markham, Messrs. J. Mercer Taylor, brother of the groom, of W. Teachout, Major and Mrs. D. R. Johnson, Mrs. Jackson Johnson, Mrs. J. L. Thorp and Mr. E. W. Taylor, of Winabow, Brunswick county; Mrs. John E. Gill and daughter, of Henderson, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stevens, of Newbern; Mr. A. E. Stevens, of Black Mountain, N. C.

Funeral of Mr. John Odham.

The funeral service was conducted at the grave, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, officiating. FLESH-FORMING FOOD.

When you buy a package of Samose, the great flesh-forming food, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use. J. Hicks Bunting will tell of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale and haggard, but who are now, through the use of Samose, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and attractive flesh. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Samose to restore the weak and sick to strength and health and to make good natural flesh that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Samose he sells to refund the money if it does not prove satisfactory.

Samose is a pure preparation, and can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak and run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh-forming food of its kind and in addition, it strengthens every organ of the body, restoring strength and health to the whole system.

Sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50c.

AUDIT AND FINANCE BOARD

Other Matters.

The Board of Audit and Finance in regular semi-monthly session at the City Hall last night reconsidered the matter of reducing the salary of the superintendent of the waterworks; postponed action on the recommendation of the Board of Aldermen that $200,000 worth of street bonds be sold; approved several contracts to furnish the city with supplies and transacted a large amount of routine business.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by Chairman Heyer and all members of the board were present except Mr. H. C. McQueen. The clerk, Capt. T. D. Meares, was at his post of duty. The board decided to restore the salary of Superintendent Robertson, of the waterworks, to the original amount, $2,400 a year, this action being taken after a conference with the waterworks commission and a better understanding on the part of the board of the duties of the superintendent in connection with the installation of the new plant. At the meeting last week the salary was cut to $1,800 a year.

Action on the contract of W. J. Penny & Company to furnish uniforms for the police was deferred on account of not having the bids before the meeting.

The matter of the lease of the opera house was reconsidered. The Schloss contract was accepted and bond approved. Joseph Schloss, of New York, and H. C. Bear are given as surety.

The bond of Mr. Chas. H. White, assistant city clerk and treasurer, in the sum of $3,000, with M. J. Corbett, Joseph Yates and J. V. Grainger, as sureties, was approved.

The recommendation of the Board of Aldermen that $200,000 worth of street improvement bonds be sold was brought up, but was deferred to a later date as there appeared to be no urgent need for action.

The board approved contracts to furnish city supplies as follows: Roger Moore's Sons & Co., terra cotta, pipe, lime and cement; Carolina Cut Stone Company, curbing; B. A. Merritt, wood; Springer Coal Company, coal; Consumers' Ice Company, ice; Wilmington Star Company, advertising; Tidewater Power Company, lights. The contract of the Orrell Livery Company for the care of city teams was left open until bids have been passed upon for the removal of trash and garbage from the streets, as it may be that the contract for this work will be let to an individual and in such case there will be no contract to let for the care of the teams.

MRS. THOS. J. KENAN DEAD

Passed Away Yesterday Morning After Long Illness—Funeral.

After a lingering illness covering a period of twelve months, Mrs. Thos. J. Kenan died at her home in East Wilmington at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral services will be held from St. Thomas' Catholic Church at 10 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. Father C. Dennen. The interment will take place in the Catholic cemetery at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Kenan was 48 years and 10 months old and is survived by a husband. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Monk and at the time of her death was the only surviving member of that well known and highly respected family. She had been in ill health for more than a year, but her condition was not considered serious until Sunday when her loved ones realized that the end was drawing near.

The remains were removed from the late home of the deceased to the residence of Miss Ellen Sheehan, 1102 Market street, yesterday afternoon. The deceased had many friends who are pained to learn of her death and whose sympathies go out to the grief-stricken husband.

COTTON RECEIPTS INCREASE

According to monthly statistics posted at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday the cotton receipts for May show an increase of 1,425 bales over the previous month, which had the heaviest receipts of several months prior to that, and also is several thousand bales more than May of last year. Another increase over same month last year is shown by the foreign exports which aggregated 39,033 bales this year against nothing for May, 1908. This is an unusual good record for this time of the season. The heaviest receipts for any one day during the month were 1,017 bales on May 10th and the price has ranged from 10 to 12 3/4 cents for middling.

The receipts of naval stores during the past month do not favorably compare with those of the same month last year, and shows a falling off of 50 per cent. in each item, with the exception of rosin, which is 4,987 against 5,624 last year.

Special License Tax.

Yesterday was a busy day with the officers in the Court House, it being the first of June when all special license taxes are due. Register of Deeds Haar issued the blanks, which were filled out at the sheriff's office upon the payment of the amount of the license. Those who own automobiles are required to register the number of their machine in the Clerk's office. An unusually large number of citizens liable for the special tax paid the amount yesterday. The tax on automobiles is $2 per year for machines less than 16 H. P. and $4 per year for all over that power, for the benefit of the road fund exclusively.

BEFORE THE RECORDER

Conductor Fined $25 For Assault.
Twelve Months For Retailing.

Charged with shooting at Charles Belvin, colored, whom he caught hobnobbing his way from Mount Olive to Wilmington, I. R. Pridgen, conductor on an Atlantic Coast Line freight train, was tried before Recorder Furlong yesterday morning, found guilty and fined $25 and taxed with the costs in the case. Belvin testified that when the conductor took him off the train here he unfasted his arms, which were tied with a cord, and told him to run, firing a pistol at him as he moved off. The conductor said that the negro broke and ran and that he fired to frighten him.

John Lowe, who was in court as a witness against some other negroes, was made a defendant in a case for selling whiskey to Vashti Sidbury, colored. The Recorder found him guilty and sentenced him to 12 months on the county roads.

The cases against Abraham Watson, Linda Blount and Albert Lamb, colored, charged with selling whiskey, were continued until today at the request of counsel for defendants, W. P. Gafford and Geo. L. Peschau, Esqs. A case against D. W. Ormsby, a white man, charged with aiding and abetting in a fight which took place between Abraham Watson and Annie Lowe, was also continued until today. It appears, according to the police, that Ormsby told Watson to go ahead and whip the women that he would pay for it.

A "MEASURING PARTY"

Delightful Evening at Trinity Methodist Church—Programme.

The "measuring party" last evening at Trinity Methodist church was a most unique and interesting event and the fine programme and other features were greatly enjoyed by the large number present.

Those who took part in the programme were Misses Hazel Winstead, Eunice Andrews, Eunice Tucker, Florence Tucker, Pauline Williams, Edna Johnson, Omaha Williams and Willie Thigpen. The programme consisted of recitations and musical numbers and several of those mentioned are members of Mrs. Curtis-Arnall North's Elocution Class. The programme was most pleasingly carried out. Delightful refreshments were served in the infant's room of the church, and a neat sum was raised for the benefit of the church building fund.

FOR ATHLETIC MEET

The Athletic meet in front of Lumina Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock promises to be an event of considerable interest. Quite a number of young men from the various classes of the Y. M. C. A. will participate and have been in training at the Association and several of those mentioned are well known. The various events have been already announced and a detailed programme will be given later in the week. A similar meet to be known as the mid-Summer meet will be held at the Beach sometime in July.

The Board of Directors of the Association held their regular monthly meeting last night and transacted routine business.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. Samuel J. Springer Hit by Falling Brick.

Mr. Samuel J. Springer had a narrow escape from receiving injury or instant death yesterday morning when a brick from the top of the new building being erected by the Springer Coal Company, on Water street, fell and struck him squarely on the head. Mr. Springer was wearing a stiff straw hat which probably saved his life. The brick cut a hole out of the crown of the hat and made an ugly wound in his head. Mr. Springer was attended by Dr. Thos. M. Green, who dressed the wound, after which he was removed to his home, where he is resting as well as could be expected.

Laying Off Homestead.

Clerk of the Superior Court John D. Taylor yesterday morning announced his decision in the supplementary proceedings in the case of Ferguson Bros., of Richmond, Va., against C. L. Whitehead, of this city, in which the plaintiffs were seeking certain personal property belonging to the defendant. The Clerk dismissed the action for the want of jurisdiction. The defendant decided, however, to turn the property in controversy over to the plaintiffs. The laying off of the defendant's homestead was commenced yesterday afternoon. The judgment of the plaintiffs against the defendant is for $177.

The Maryland Strawberry.

Friends of Mr. Oscar P. Peck, who is now with the Fruit Growers' Express, will be interested to know that he is now at Salisbury, Md., assisting in handling the heavy movement of berries from that point. It will be of interest to know that on Monday 116 cars were handled from Salisbury under refrigeration and two 25-car express trains for Philadelphia and New York, all of which goes to show that not all the strawberries handled in the world are from Eastern Carolina.

Cleaning and Sweeping Streets.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found invitations for proposals for cleaning and sweeping the streets, etc., of the city. The advertisement gives particulars.

Women Who Are Envid.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

Hickory, N. C., May 31.—Hickory voted today an increased levy of ten cents on the hundred dollars' property valuation and thirty cents on the poll for the support of the schools. Out of a total registration of 352 the majority for the additional tax was 70. The actual vote was 211 for the tax and only 13 against. Hickory does not propose to be left behind in the march of educational progress.

Washington Correspondence Charlotte Observer, May 31.—Down in the Sixth Congressional district, where Hannibal LaFayette Godwin reigns, there is talk of A. J. McKinnon, better known as Sandy McKinnon, of Maxton. If Robeson desired to send a Scotchman and will unite on a man it would take hard work to keep him from victory. Washington is a great place for political rumors. I pass these out for what they are worth.

Lumberton Robesonian: A new barn on Colonel N. A. McLean's farm about 2 miles from town, on the Carthage road, was destroyed by fire last night about 9 o'clock. A negro tenant lives on the place. A hog, some oats, forage and fertilizer were burned. The fire was of incendiary origin. It will be recalled that some miscreant set fire to Colonel McLean's stables at his home on Elm street last fall and burned some horses, cows, vehicles and feed.

Salisbury, N. C., June 1.—The Bar-koot Carnival Company, which has just closed a week's engagement at Spencer, will likely be the last aggregation of its kind to exhibit in Rowan for some time to come, as it is understood that no release from the license tax is to be granted in the future on account of exhibiting "for the benefit" of charitable or other organizations. Salisbury has probably had her last carnival, for which many of the citizens will be thankful.

Lumberton Robesonian: "Passenger service on the V & C. S. will begin tomorrow. Only one car has arrived but others are expected in a few days. A car will be rented from the R. & A. until they arrive. Two trains will be run to Hope Mills and return daily. The first train will leave Lumberton at 8:30 A. M., arrive at Hope Mills 10:30; leave Hope Mills 12 M., arrive Lumberton 1:20 P. M.; leave Lumberton 3:25, arrive Hope Mills 4:45 and return to Lumberton at 6:50. The regular time for the run will be an hour and 20 minutes. The longer run of the morning train will be only temporary in order to do local work until the other cars arrive."

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 31.—Effective tomorrow the Atlantic Coast Line will begin the operation of what is known as the "potato trains" on the branch line of the company from Washington to this city. This train has been put on for the past eight or ten years for the handling of the spring crop of Irish potatoes which are raised in great abundance in that part of the State. The schedule of the train will be to leave Washington about the noon hour and to arrive at South Rocky Mount about six o'clock in time to make the connection with the night and early morning fast freights out of this city. The potato crop is an important item in the east, and in addition to the many car loads raised along the lines of the Atlantic Coast Line there is quite a large number of boatloads brought to Washington from down the river every day, where the crop is a large one as well.

Information is received in Hickory, says a special to the Asheville Citizen, that a very large and extensive cotton mill, the largest in the world, it is said, will be established at Hickory just as soon as the proposed hydro-electric development on the Catawba river here is assured. It seems that New England cotton mill men are taking the initiative in the matter. Whether or not they will remove factories from there here or establish a new factory is not yet stated. But most probably a new factory out and out. A factory of such proportions should by all means be a new one. In either event it would not be necessary or even possible with only 9,000 of primary horsepower that can be developed to be transmitted to any other place than Hickory, for that would require all the current to be had to be utilized in Hickory. Such a mill would employ from 5,000 to 6,000 hands, and its effects on the prosperity of Hickory can be imagined.

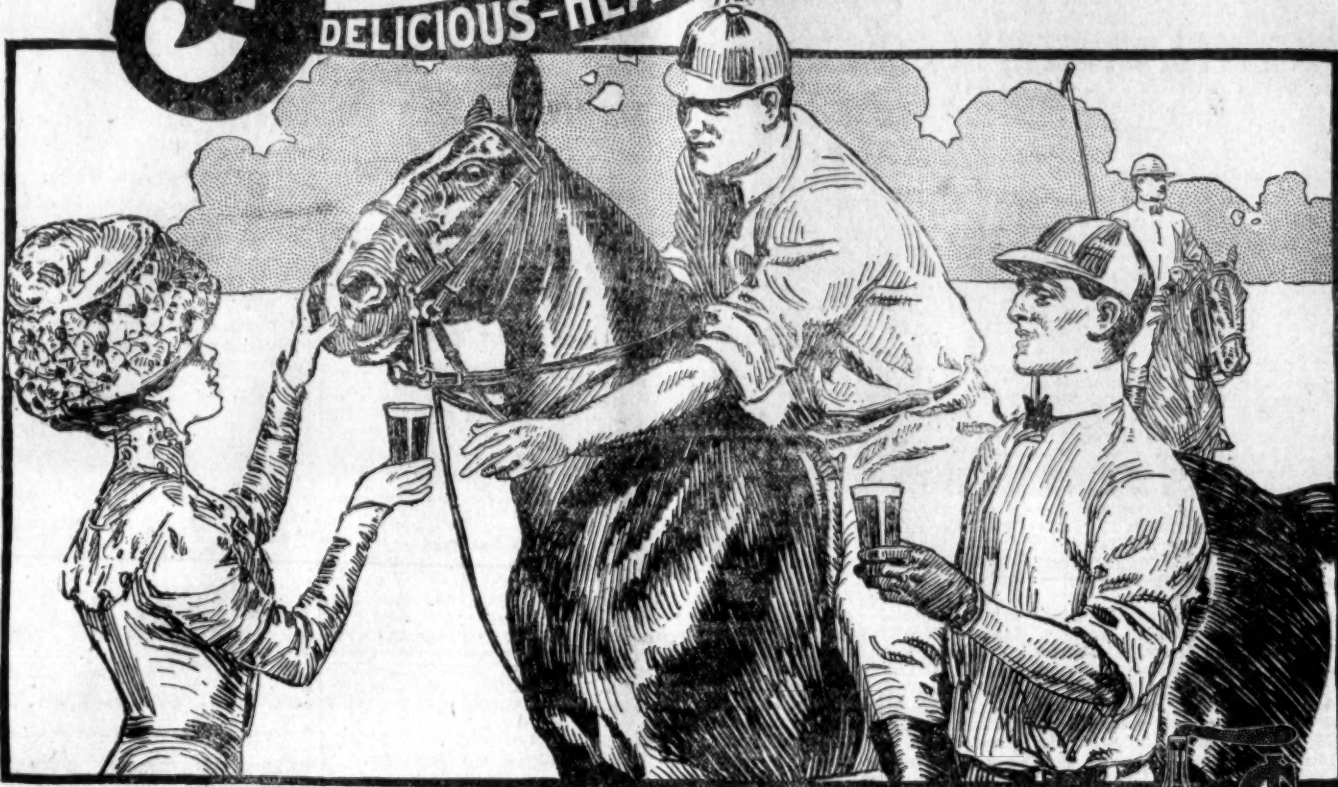

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Tomorrow afternoon a party of Congressmen, under the chaperonage of Representative John H. Small, will leave for a trip of inspection of the North Carolina section of the inland waterway. The visitors will include Representative and Mrs. Alexander, of New York; Representatives Moore, of Pennsylvania; Stevens, of Minnesota, and Randall, of Louisiana, and the Washington correspondent of the News and Observer. Representative Alexander is to be the new chairman of the Rivers and Harbor Committee of the House, succeeding former Representative Burton, who has been elected to the Senate. The party will go from here to Baltimore, where it will board the government light house tender, the Jessamine. After the run to Norfolk, the trip inside the sounds of North Carolina will be begun. Elizabeth City, Washington, Beaufort and Newbern will probably be visited, though the stops will be brief. It is the purpose of the party to visit the section of the inland waterways that is now under construction.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 1.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today with the tendency toward a modification of views concerning the probable showing of the government's crop report which is expected next Friday. The market closed steady but unchanged to 6 points lower. The opening was steady at a decline of 3 points on July as a result of further liquidation while other positions were unchanged to 3 points higher on buying through commission houses which was probably encouraged by talk of further rains in the Mississippi Valley. At the head of the market showed a generally steady tone and shortly after the call July rallied with the general list selling about 4 to 6 points net higher, but soon weakened in the absence of aggressive support and during the middle of the day ruled quite unsettled.

The report of the National Grainers' Association placing the average condition of the crop at 8.6 and indicating a decrease of only 2.8 per cent. in the acreage, was followed by heavy selling, particularly as there were rumors that the report of a prominent local statistician to be issued tomorrow would also make a more bearish showing than recent reports and before the decline was checked the active months were selling about 8 to 11 points net lower. Part of this loss was recovered in the last hour on private reports of heavy rain in the Mississippi Valley and buying by houses with Memphis connections. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-8c higher. Liverpool was closed today, but will re-open for business tomorrow morning.

Receipts at the ports today 11,573 bales against 21,139 last week and 13,113 last year; for the week 50,000 bales against 109,414 last week and 66,645 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 726 bales against 1,968 last year, and at Houston 2,138 bales against 2,429 last year.

Spot cotton 15 points lower; middling uplands 11.15; middling gulf 11.50. Futures opened steady and closed steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, June 1.—The jobbing houses are making closing prices on spring goods and are offering wash goods and white goods to clean up. The western and southern trade sent in good mail orders during the day. Cotton goods are firm and tending slightly higher. The export trade is quiet. Cotton yarns opened quiet for the week. In men's wear the duplicate business is light. Preparations are underway for spring openings to take place this month, cotton worsteds already being shown by some houses.

MARKET GOSPEL.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
New York, June 1.—A bill was given to the speculation by the news of the action being taken towards listing the United States Steel securities on the Paris bourse. The seemingly endless supply of capital accumulation in France which seeks profitable employment directs the longing gaze of all promoters and security dealers to that inviting field. One of the striking passages in the interview of E. H. Harriman with newspaper men before his sailing for Europe, spoke in rather contemptuous terms of the supposition that his railroad companies need apply to foreign markets to secure a ready sale of their securities since he could sell $100,000,000 Union Pacific bonds in New York in five minutes. It is still felt among bankers and financiers generally, however, that the development of this country is so far short of its ultimate opportunity that resort to foreign supplies of capital is still profitable and to an extent, necessary. The prospect of United States Steel being listed on the Paris bourse, therefore, appealed to the speculative imagination. The price of that stock rose to 65 5-8 within a short time after trading began. Profit taking sales were on a very heavy scale. Union Pacific signalled the departure of the head of that system for Europe by a rise of 2 1-2 points. There were other marked advances in company with United States Steel and Union Pacific but the upward movement did not become uniform at any stage and suffered decided restraint in the dullness of the later trading. A late recovery to the best price in United States Steel, left the general market irregular in tone. The June payment made no impression on the tone of the money market.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $6,020,000. United States 4 coupon declined 1-2 cent. on call. Total sales of stocks today 708,200 shares.

Diamond Dust

Levy was again at his old trick of slugging in the first game at Fayetteville and his willow was again effective yesterday.

More than likely the rank misplays of a majority of his team mates worked on Warwick to such an extent in that opening game at Fayetteville that he just couldn't get his heart into the game.

The Star was represented at the game at Fayetteville Monday by the "Hoss Editor" who is sojourning in the Highlander territory for a while and who is being cordially received by many friends of his boyhood days there.

The Electric Scoreboard at Struthers', which by the way is an up-to-date novelty few even of the larger cities enjoy, is the Mecca towards which the footsteps of the faithful are turned when the home boys are abroad. The prompt exhibition of the various individual plays is almost like seeing the game itself. To encourage patronage of the matinee, the management will admit ladies free one day each week, on Wednesdays, commencing today. The ladies will occupy reserved seats in front and plenty of them have been provided. The game will be called promptly at 3 o'clock.

Manager Gwaltney is making some much needed improvements on the grandstand at the park, preparatory to the big series with Wilson this week. The entire under side is being latticed so as to overcome an objectionable feature of the past. The new opera chairs are being put in the middle section of the grandstand behind the home plate. An extra charge of 10c will be made for these chairs from those holding season tickets; 25c admits one to chair, if purchaser does not hold season ticket. The chairs are strong and comfortable and makes witnessing the game possible under the best possible circumstances. The Tidewater Company is also having board walks provided at both entrances to the park with many other improvements that will make for the better handling of the traffic. Wilmington now has a strong and high-priced team and the patronage should be the best in the State.

Secretary Gowan has announced the official batting and fielding records of the league, as of May 28th: Including in the compilation the records of all players who have performed in one or more games since the inauguration of the season, the Wilson team leads in club batting with an average of .178; Fayetteville following with .170; Goldsboro next with .163; Wilmington fourth, hitting .161; Raleigh, .158; and Rocky Mount last with .155. Wilson also shows up first in club fielding—.966, the other teams following in order, Raleigh .954, Goldsboro .937, Wilmington .925, Rocky Mount .911, and Fayetteville .882. The work of men tried out and released is, of course, included in the record of the team with which they were connected, poor performances on their part bringing down the general average; and a later compiling will probably tell a different story. Brodie, of Wilmington, leads the individual batting with .411, followed by Davy Crockett, of Goldsboro, with .350.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

To avoid serious results take Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of kidney or bladder disorder such as backache, urinary irregularities, exhaustion, and you will soon be well. Robt. R. Bellamy.

Catch our long-time friend, the Hon. Charley Reynolds, napping will you. While the supposed rank and file of the Republican party is raising shiny over Judge Connor's appointment, with Holton and Skinner siding with Mr. Taft and commending him, a good many people were wondering what Mr. Reynolds, always a politician, would do. He was not long in telling them. He says the appointment was due to the fact that the party could not get together on a man for the judgeship; that Mr. Taft gave them every chance and they failed, so that the selection of Connor was the fault of these very men who are now doing the most kicking.—Greensboro Record.

Dear Sir:
 Whatever may be your business, you cannot make progress without connecting with a banking institution offering facilities which will enable you to compete with other business men.

Many merchants and traders are handicapped because they do not enjoy the advantages offered by a modern banking service. A service in which the personal element is entirely eliminated, and each application or transaction is treated upon its business merit.

This institution is conducted upon the broad principle of having no favorites, and adhering strictly to the requirements of the United States Government, by which it is supervised. At the same time, the bank takes special interest in being of service and offering all legitimate encouragement to the small merchant, the young business man, and any worthy industry.

Your account would be welcomed, regardless of its size.

Yours truly,
